

Chris Padgett, CPCC, PCC, is a professional coach and works primarily with organizational leaders and executive teams. Chris graduated from the Coaches Training Institute, and is a Certified Professional Co-Active Coach (CPCC). He represents ICF Ohio Valley on the International Coach Federation Midwest Regional Advisory Council, and is the global co-leader of the International Coach Federation Team, Organization, and Group Coaching Community of Practice. Chris has served on the ICF Ohio Valley leadership team since 2013. He previously served as president-elect and vp marketing. He became acting president in May when the former chapter president vacated the office.

Previously Chris directed corporate marketing for a Fortune 100 company. During his tenure with Humana Inc., the organization experienced explosive growth and grew to be the largest company in Kentucky and one of the largest in its industry. Chris' company, Growth Revolution Inc., has been hired to work with clients from: AARP, ADP, Asurion, AgentLink, Brown-Forman, CMD Health, Commonwealth Health Corporation, DHL, Houchens Industries, IBM, Lilly, and Partners in Human Resources International. Chris' work as a professional coach has been featured on Bloomberg, BBC, Fox Business, Voctiv, Business First, Lane Report, and the Courier-Journal. Previously, he served on the board of trustees for: Kentucky Derby Festival, Kentucky March of Dimes, Stage One Family Theatre, and Belknap Neighborhood Association. He was a Bingham Fellow and Ignite Louisville graduate. He's been with his partner, Brian Voelker, for 13 happy years and is an 8th generation Louisvillian. He is a member of Botanica and the Filson Historical Society. He enjoys travel, reading, photography, exercise, and being in nature. Chris' core values are: community, adventure, curiosity, and beauty.